

CONSTRUCTION ACADEMY June - August 2018

Build the cities of tomorrow, today. You can do exactly that at Construction Academy, a four-day experience for high school juniors and seniors.

Hosted by the Department of Construction Science at Texas A&M, the program is designed to help students like you plan your dream job in construction science. You'll get to check out the latest technology and learn all about this exciting industry.

Daily Activities:

- introduction to construction industry
- scheduling exercises
- estimating exercises
- construction site visit
- OSHA training
- leadership/team building activities
- entrepreneurship
- construction technologies
- college career readiness
- campus site visits

Includes:

- breakfast, lunch, dinner & snacks
- giveaways
- college readiness course

Sign up today!

Scholarships for 35 participants will be competitive visit cosc.arch.tamu.edu and cecerlab.com or email I