

Bridgeland High School Retest/Redo Guidelines

The following criteria should guide retest/redo practices.

- A student should have one opportunity each grading period in each course to retake a Summative Assessment (test) for which he/she earned a failing grade (below a 70).
 - The highest grade a student can earn on a summative assessment/test retake will be a 70.
 - A student may not earn a grade lower than the original grade.
 - Prior to retesting, the teacher should require an intervening action (tutorial attendance, study group, test correction, etc.).

- A student should have at least one opportunity each grading period, in each course to redo a Relevant Application for which he/she earned a failing grade (below a 70).
 - The highest grade a student can earn on a redone relevant application will be a 70.
 - A student may not earn a grade lower than the original grade.

- Teachers should allow students to redo at least one Checking for Understanding (daily grade or class assignment) for which the student received a failing grade.
 - The highest grade a student can earn on a redone checking for understanding/class assignment will be a 70.
 - A student may not earn a grade lower than the original grade.

DPMs or Benchmarks are not included in the retest/redo opportunities.
